PRIVACY NOTICE

You are at the heart of everything we do. That is why we have created this privacy notice to help you understand how we collect, use, and protect your personal information. This privacy notice will help you understand how we do that. This notice may change, and we will update the date at the top of this page if it does.

If you are younger than 18, please share this notice with your parent or guardian.

1. YOUR RIGHTS AND PREFERENCES

You have the right to:

- · ask what we know about you;
- · ask what personal information we sent to our suppliers, service providers, or anyone else;
- · ask us to update, correct or delete any out-of-date or incorrect personal information we have about you;
- · unsubscribe from marketing;
- object to our use of your personal information;
- ask that a person review certain automated decisions that we make about you, express your point of view about those decisions, and ask us to explain the decision;
- · complain to the Information Regulator.

It can take us up to 21 days to respond to your request because there are procedures that we need to follow. In some instances, we may ask you for proof of your identity or a valid proof of residence

2. INFORMATION WE COLLECT AND USE

When you apply to study at UCT, we collect information about:

We use this information to make decisions about your application, for internal planning purposes, to obtain funding and subsidies from government. We also need to verify some of the information you share with us, and we may use third-party service providers to help us. We use applicants' and students' information to create an institutional profile for obtaining funding from government. We report to schools about applicants.
We use this information to stay in touch with you and send you important information.
We use this information to determine whether you need support for a disability.
And, finally, there are some things we ask to help us get to know you better before we decide to admit you.
There is information we need to ensure that we can deliver the services you signed up for. For example, we need to communicate with you, bill you, provide catering in residences and to process applications for a deferment or leave of absence.
We use this information to keep our staff and students safe. For example, we collect biometric information (like fingerprints) to give you access to the buildings on campus, and we monitor our campus with CCTV cameras. If there are security incidents such as suspected theft, assault or fraud, we share information with the police.
We use this information because we are legally required to submit these reports. And submitting them helps ensure that we receive funding and can continue delivering our services.
You can opt out at any time.
You can object to the use of your picture at any time.

3. INFORMATION WE GENERATE

We generate information about you in the form of records of:

- · your disadvantage factor, for South African undergraduate applicants;
- access to our facilities;
- · appeals and disciplinary matters; and

- · your redress category, for all South African applicants;
- how you perform academically;
- · reports about student applications.

4. HOW WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION

We will only share your personal information with others if it is necessary to manage our relationship with you or to ensure that our business runs smoothly. We only share the information that the service provider needs – nothing more.

We may share your information with service providers to help us:

- communicate with you;
- · verify your qualifications;
- manage operations, for e.g., accountants, auditors and professional advisors; and
- · manage academic transcripts, events, career and other services;
- · monitor the effectiveness of our services;
- · manage our buildings and facilities

Whether our service providers are in South Africa or other countries, they must agree to keep your information as safe and confidential as we do. And they may only use it for the reason we share it with them. We make sure that we have the necessary contracts in place before we share your information.

5. WE DON'T HOARD YOUR INFORMATION

We will not keep your information for longer than we need to for business reasons or longer than the law requires.

email to uctosirt@uct.ac.za. Please include as much information as you can about what may have happened.

6. WE DO OUR BEST TO KEEP YOUR INFORMATION SECURE

We have reasonable security measures in place to protect personal information from:

- being lost
- being accessed without permission
- being destroyed

If any of these things happen, it is called a breach.

- · being used in the wrong way or for the wrong reason
- being changed

The more sensitive the information is, the better we protect it. Although we cannot guarantee that we will never experience a breach, we check our systems regularly for security issues. If something should happen, we have taken steps to minimise the threat to your privacy. We will let you know if anything has happened to your personal information. We will also let you know what you can do to minimise the impact of the breach. If you suspect that we (or you) have had a security breach, please let us know immediately by sending an

SECTION N

DECLARATIONS BY APPLICANT AND PARENT/GUARDIAN

Without prejudice to the terms of my application for admission, I make the following declarations:

- 1. I will abide by the UCT's rules.
- 2. I hold myself responsible for: the payment of all fees and charges due and payable by me to UCT each year; any arrears and interest on arrears as defined in this year's fee booklet; and any costs of recovery, including attorney-and-client scale fees and/or collection commission. If I do not inform the Registrar in writing of withdrawal from studies or a course by the prescribed date(s) I will be liable for full fees even if I do not make use of UCT facilities.
- 3. By signing and submitting this document, I confirm that I have read and understood the Privacy Notice and agree to its terms.
- 4. I accept, agree and understand that, if I am currently completing secondary school, UCT may communicate with my school about my application details with the purpose of supporting my application.
- 5. I waive all claims against UCT for: any damage or loss suffered while I am, or as a consequence of my being, a UCT student and/or arising out of loss or destruction of, or damage to, any property belonging to me or any other person.
- 6. I have not been expelled, rusticated, or excluded from any other university.
- 7. If I am a minor, I have the consent of my parent(s)/guardian to sign this form.
- 8. The information given on this form is complete and accurate. If I fail to disclose or falsely declare information (for example, non-disclosure of previous tertiary studies), this could lead to disciplinary action and/or the cancellation of my application and/or registration at UCT.

Please respond to the following questions, even if you have provided similar information previously. Your application will be deemed incomplete if you do not respond to items 9 and 10.
9. I have been registered at another university before. Registration means that I have received any form of tuition, whether or not I have written examinations, graduated or completed the programme.
10. I have received National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS) funding at another institution.
